1. SPONSORING ORGANIZATION

This information pertains to the nonprofit organization that will be responsible for overseeing the grant, if awarded. The sponsoring organization must make a substantive contribution to the content of the project, and may not be solely a fiscal agent sponsor. Teacher Institute Grants are open only to colleges, universities, and the West Virginia Department of Education.

The CEO of the Sponsoring Organization must sign the application (Section 11).

If the grant is awarded, the Sponsoring Organization must provide its FEIN #, DUNS #, and UEI #, and have full, active registration at SAM.gov.

Does the project involve the participation of or presentation to the following communities traditionally underserved by the humanities? Click all that apply and explain in the appropriate project narrative section.

Veterans/active-duty military

HBCU or Community College

Seniors

Undergraduates

Others (underserved due to lack of access to humanities programs or funding opportunities due to, but not limited to, geography, economics, ethnicity, or disability).

6. PROJECT NARRATIVE

A. Project Narrative

Describe the project. Explain what you want the project to accomplish, and why your organization wishes to undertake and complete the project (10,000 character limit).

B. Humanities Content

Describe the humanities content of the project. Explain particularly how this project will deliver educational content in one or more subject areas of the humanities to its audience(s). (5,000 character limit)

C. Sponsoring Organization, Cooperating Groups, and Project Staff

Provide information about the sponsoring organization (what is the mission, when was it founded, what is its relationship to the project); cooperating groups (the organizations' names and what their relationship is to the project); and project staff (who will be working on the project and what are their roles). (8,000 character limit)

D. Promotional Plan

Describe your promotional plan including details of how the project will be publicized. (Will press releases be sent to media outlets, advertisements or billboards purchased, or a social media campaign implemented?) View the West Virginia Humanities Council Publicity and Publication Requirements at: <http://wvhumanities.org/grants/managing-yourgrant/publicity-media-and-publication-requirements/> (5,000 character limit)

E. Plan for Evaluation

Describe your plan to evaluate the project at its completion, including what methods will be used to evaluate how successfully the project has achieved its intended goal(s). The Humanities Council can provide standard evaluation forms for collecting participant or audience feedback; subawardees may also opt to create their own evaluation forms or online surveys in place of, or as supplements to, the Humanities Council's standard form. In any event, your evaluation plan should (1) explain your proposed assessment methods, and (2) articulate how you propose to collect direct audience or participant feedback on the completed project. (5,000 character limit)

(6. PROJECT NARRATIVE – Continued)

F. Credit Hours

Describe the number and cost of graduate degree-credit and continuing education hours offered through the Teacher Institute. The institute must offer at least three graduate-level staff development or professional development hours that are eligible to be used toward renewal of a teaching certificate and advance salary classification. The tuition or fees for degree-credit or continuing education hours offered must be waived or offered at a reduced rate from the standard fees.

G. Reading Material

Provide a list of proposed reading material for the Teacher Institute participants.

7. SCHEDULE OF ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS

Insofar as possible, provide a general schedule of work, activities, and events associated with the grant project. Include dates (or proposed dates) and locations when possible. If the grant is awarded, you will receive instructions and a link to complete a schedule of events with full details. For Teacher Institute grants, include a preliminary schedule showing how each day of the institute will be organized and describe the major activities. (10,000 character limit)

8. HUMANITIES SCHOLARS

Each grant must have at least one humanities scholar directly involved with the project, who holds expertise in the humanities discipline(s) that the project is addressing. Humanities scholars provide oversight and guidance on topics, facts, information, and research relevant to the project's content. See the Council's grant guidelines for a definition of a humanities scholar.

Scholar Name

Scholar Details: Include information on each involved scholar's current employment, relevant past employment (if applicable), academic degree(s) AND discipline(s), major publications, and their role in the project. (2,000 character limit per scholar)

9. PROJECT BUDGET

Grant requests must be matched 100%. For grants over $2,000, 25% of the cost-share must be in cash. For a full list of budget requirements, guidelines, and eligible expenses, visit the Council's grant guidelines at <https://wvhumanities.org/grants/how-to-apply-guidelines/general-grant-guidelines/>

For each budget line category, enter the total amount requested and total in-kind and cash cost-share. If $0, leave the field blank.

Additional Funding: List any additional funding that you have requested, plan to request, or have secured for this project and include amounts.

Budget Narrative: The budget narrative must provide a clear depiction of how you arrived at the proposed grant request AND cost share amounts. Describe how each expense line was calculated. For example, if you include a request/match for salaries, describe who will do what work, for how many hours, and at what rate per hour. If you have requested funds for supplies, describe the cost per item and where you obtained the estimate.

10. ADDITIONAL MATERIAL

Attach a one- to three-page resume(s) of the teacher institute director(s). Attach as a PDF file. If you save and resume later, you will have to reattach the document.

11. COMPLIANCE AND SIGNATURE

By signing and submitting this grant proposal, the authorizing official of the sponsoring organization is acknowledging compliance with the West Virginia Humanities Council’s grant guidelines. The authorizing official also certifies that the sponsoring organization is established for nonprofit purposes and that the described project is and will be not-for-profit; no profit will be derived from the project, nor will any accrue to the sponsoring organization.
